

REMIT FINES OF BRAVE POLICEMEN

For bravery during the recent race riots, fines against sixteen members of the police department, aggregating $515, for violations of the police manual rules, were remitted by the Board of Commissioners.

In his recommendation to the Commissioners, Major Raymond W. Pullman, superintendent of police, asked to have the fines remitted because of the heroic and courageous service performed by the officers during the rioting.

MORE POSTAL PAY
ASKED OF HOUSE

Zihlman Bill Would Boost
Several Thousand D. C.
Salaries 40 Per Cent.

Several thousand postal employees in the District of Columbia would receive an increase in salary under the provisions of a bill introduced in the House by Congressman Frederick N. Zihlman, chairman of the House Committee on Expenditures in the Post-office Department.

Members of both House and Senate are said to look with favor on an increase for postal employees, since it is agreed they are among the poorest paid in Government service.

The Zihlman bill provides for an increased compensation for post-office clerks, special clerks, and other employees in first and second class offices, and carriers in the city delivery service, at the rate of 40 per cent to those at present compensation is $1,200, or less, per annum.

An increase of 35 per cent is provided for those receiving more than $1,200 and not more than $1,500.

Special clerks and employees whose present compensation is $1,600 per annum would receive a 30 per cent increase.

Under the provisions of the bill, railway postal clerks in class A shall receive $2,000 per annum; in class B, $2,100 per annum, and in class C, $2,200 per annum.

The bill provides that an appropriation to meet all increases provided therein shall be made with the passage of the act.

NEW GEORGETOWN "PREP"
TO OPEN SEPTEMBER 16

September 16 has been announced as the date for the opening of the new Georgetown Preparatory School on the Rockville road, Garrett Park, Maryland. For more than a century the school has been located on the university grounds, in Georgetown.

The proper mental, moral, and physical education of the boys, it is stated, can better be carried out in a country school than in one situated within the "distracting limits" of the city.

The head master will be the Rev. Richard A. O'Brien, S. J. Father O'Brien has just been discharged from the army.

"REGGIE'S" wife is seen here looking for a divorce from the Vanderbilt millions. She asks no alimony, but seeks custody of a fifteen-year-old daughter, the only child.

VANDERBILT SUIT
STIRS NEWPORT

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 20.—The divorce suit brought by Mrs. Reggie Vanderbilt was the topic of the hour today in Newport, but, aside from the fact that the papers have been filed, no one seemed to know much about it. Therefore, society's curiosity is up.

Mrs. Vanderbilt, who resides with her daughter, Cathleen, in a pretty cottage on Bellevue avenue, declined to discuss any phase of the situation. She and the little girl went motoring in the afternoon and they were kept busy nodding continually as they passed through the cottage colony retreating the interested greetings of friends.

"Reggie" left his farm at Sandy Point, Portsmouth, today for New York, but it was said he would return early next week for the Newport horse show, of which he is a director. Interest now centers on what arrangements will be made for the custody of little Cathleen.

TO STAGE BURIAL
AT GROTTO OUTING

An elaborate pageant, demonstrating the well-known thesis that "life is just one blame thing after another" is being staged on the boardwalk at Chesapeake Beach today as the outstanding feature of the annual outing of members of Kallipolis Grotto.

Mr. William Shakespeare once remarked that all the world's a stage, with men as the actors, his act being seven ages. Now Grotto members say that Shakespeare was all wrong, that life should have more than seven acts.

So today they are presenting about forty-seven acts, depicting all of the hardships of life, from the cradle to the grave. The pageant starts with a baby kicking about peacefully in a cradle and ends with a coffin being lowered into a grave and a clergyman saying something about "ashes to ashes, dust to dust." The finale should be very realistic, for an honest-to-goodness undertaker is directing the scene.

Another feature of the day will be an induction ceremony, when more than twenty-five candidates will be initiated.

MOTHER HAS THE RIGHT TO SPANK BABY, SAYS JUDGE

REDWOOD CITY, Cal., Aug. 20.—Mrs. Louise Eaton won the right today to spank her baby.

The husband sued for divorce, alleging his wife spanked too hard. Court thought otherwise.

WHY BRAINWORKERS
ARE CONSTIPATED

Nervousness or Intense Concentration Upon Work Will Cause Bowels To Falter.

People working indoors, without exercise and without fresh air, become constipated. They should not take a big, powerful laxative agent. What they need is a tiny dose at intervals of an hour or so through the day. In this way the system can be put to work without discomfort or delay. At night and the relief is more thorough. Just take an E-Z Tablet at bedtime. You get almost instant relief. No discomfort or bother. The second or third tiny E-Z Tablet sets the system to working beautifully. 100 E-Z Tablets in handy wooden bottle, 25c. Pure or pocket size, 10c. People's Drug Stores and all good drug stores.

MARKET BASKET TO CUT H. C. L. URGED

Housewives Invited to Inspect
Farm Produce Here
Saturday.

While Washington housewives are waiting for the full quota of the district's surplus army food to arrive, George M. Roberts, superintendent of weights and measures, is exhorting them to join a "back to the market basket" movement, as an effective means of reducing the high cost of living.

Market masters have extended invitations to housewives to visit the markets where the farmers arrive with their produce, and an appreciable saving, it is claimed, can be made on all foodstuffs.

C. B. Filius, master at the Farmers' Market, Twelfth and B streets, said about 500 farmers with approximately $30,000 worth of produce would be here Saturday, and that housewives would do well to go to the market at 8 o'clock.

Fair Price Meeting Tomorrow.

About 1,500 notices of the fair price meeting were sent to food retailers and wholesalers of Washington to meet in the auditorium of the Business High School tomorrow.

The purpose of the meeting is to organize a fair price association, under the direction of Clarence R. Wilson, who is chairman of the fair price committee composed of Washington consumers and food dealers.

The fair price committee does not intend to dictate to food dealers, but merely to suggest a fair marginal profit list, it is said. It is expected the first fair price list will be made public the latter part of the week.

John G. McGrath, a member of the fair price committee, and also chairman of the special co-operative committee of the Federal Employees' Union, No. 2, has called a meeting in the District building for Friday night to discuss plans for a permanent co-operative buying and distributing organization to be composed of Washington consumers.

"We are going ahead with the distribution of the order blanks," said Assistant Postmaster Kerlin this morning. "Just as soon as enough food arrives and deliveries can be made, so that the people's money will not be tied up in orders."

All the carloads of food allotted to Washington were scheduled to arrive here, it was said, before Monday, and it is believed the distribution of the surplus army food will go ahead in a day or two.

Yesterday's arrivals included quantities of roast beef, corned beef and corn. At one time it was thought that Washington would not receive any of the surplus army bacon, but it was learned today that 17,000 12-pound cans are now on the way here.

No War Stamps On Food.

The postmasters throughout the country have been instructed by the Third Assistant Postmaster General that no war stamp tax shall be applied to shipments of surplus army foodstuffs by parcel post.

They have also been instructed that the postage to be collected from purchasers on such parcel post shipments "shall in all cases, except when the local rate is applicable, be computed at the first and second zone rate of 5 cents for the first pound and 1 cent for each additional pound."

The local rate is 5 cents for the first pound and 1 cent for each additional two pounds or fraction thereof.

The War Department, it is said, will pay any excess over these rates where the postoffices of distribution are located beyond the second zone from the army supply depots.

MOVE ON REDS BY LAND, SEA AND AIR

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The Anglo-Estonian offensive against Petrograd is apparently in full swing, with the land forces supported by British air and naval forces.

The following summary of the situation was printed by the Standard today:

British munitions are pouring into Reval and are being supplied to Admiral Kolchak's and General Denikin's anti-Bolshevik armies. Advances from Bucharest state that the Rumanians are preparing for an offensive against the Russian Reds, joining up with the advancing army of General Denikin. In the meanwhile the British are keeping order in the Caucasus and on the littoral of the Caspian sea.

The British are co-operating with the Estonians under General Judentich.

'MODEL MAN' FREED
OF DEATH CHARGE

NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 20.—Ellier Chapman, known in his home, Lewiston, Me., as "the model young man," but charged here with the murder of Mrs. Jean Schwab, nineteen, and generally known as "Dot," has been acquitted in the corporation court.

Mrs. Schwab, who was a salesgirl in a department store of which Chapman was manager, was killed here on the night of April 23, while walking with Chapman on an unfrequented street bordering a cemetery. Chapman testified they had been held up by a negro highwayman and that he also was wounded by the negro.

AERONAUTICS' DAD
TO STUDY IN U. S.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Santos Dumont, pioneer French aviator, who was the first to circle the Eiffel Tower, was planning today to establish headquarters at the Mineola flying field, where he will study the latest developments in American aviation.

Dumont arrived here yesterday from South America.

He said he was eager to make a trip in some of the new American machines, but only as a passenger, as "flying is a young man's game."

SEEKS PLAY PLOTS
FOR OLD FOLKS

With the work of the War Camp Community Service in Washington gradually closing, Mrs. Susie Root Rhodes, supervisor of playgrounds, today is planning to enlarge, on a permanent scale, the playground system of Washington.

Mrs. Rhodes is endeavoring to have the playgrounds in this city open at night as recreation centers for men and women.

The first aim of Mrs. Rhodes is to have the District buy the present land loaned to the city for playgrounds. If this is done, Mrs. Rhodes is confident she can throw open the playgrounds at night, and take care of the crowds attending the War Camp Community clubs.

"The crying need of Washington is more playgrounds," says Mrs. Rhodes. "There should be playgrounds within walking distance of every person in the city."

The outdoor work of the War Camp Community Service largely has been made possible by the playground department. Mrs. Rhodes says all baseball, soccer, tennis, and other sports were played with playground apparatus.

Mrs. Rhodes strongly advocates the lighting and opening of playgrounds to 10 o'clock each night.

SHE WORKS, NOT HE,
ASKS ALIMONY CUT

Clarence L. Ziegler yesterday filed a petition in the District Supreme Court to have the alimony he has to pay his wife, Mrs. Elsie M. Ziegler, reduced. He is now paying $50 a month and is 3900 in arrears.

Ziegler says that since his release from the District jail, August 14, last, where he was sent for alleged failure to pay the temporary alimony, he has been unable to obtain employment. He declares his wife is employed at the War Department at a salary of $120 a month, and says that if the present court order as to alimony stands she would altogether receive $170 a month for herself and two children, while he has nothing.

Ziegler also asked the court to fix a time when he may see his children.
